Where the Mind is without Fear

Rabindranath Tagore

Rabindranath Tagore (1861-1941), who contributed immensely to giving modern India a place on the world literary scene, a multifaceted personality. He was a poet, a dramatist, a short story writer, an educationist and a novelist. He was also a philosopher and a nation builder. He wrote primarily in Bengali, but translated a number of his own works into English and in the process wrote them ahead. Of the volumes of poetry which he rendered into English, the important ones are Gitanjali and The Crescent Moon. The songs of Gitanjali are mainly devotional poems in the traditional manner. His Crescent Moon is a collection intended primarily for children but it has a powerful appeal also for adults who have not lost the child's capacity for wonder and joy. The poems are mainly love poetry with a human rather than a divine sentiment. The philosophy is occasionally blended with the note of romance. Love and sensibility are combined here to present truths.

About the Poem

Where the Mind is without Fear, the 15th poem of Gitanjali is one of Tagore's most atheologised poems. It is an expression of the poet's reflective spirit and is a simple prayer for the free pre-independent India. But the prayer has a universal nature which makes it immortal. He prays that his country will not have petty concerns and narrow prejudices and that it will stand for the world of freedom of thought and action based on faith and fearlessness.

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high;
 Where knowledge is free;

Guidelines for slow learner (Weak Students):

- The connotation of academically slow learner (Weak Students) means those who could not keep pace with the classroom teaching needs extra attention so as to bring such students at par with the rest of the students of the class.
- Slow learners are identified based on their performance in University Examination of previous semester and internal examinations.

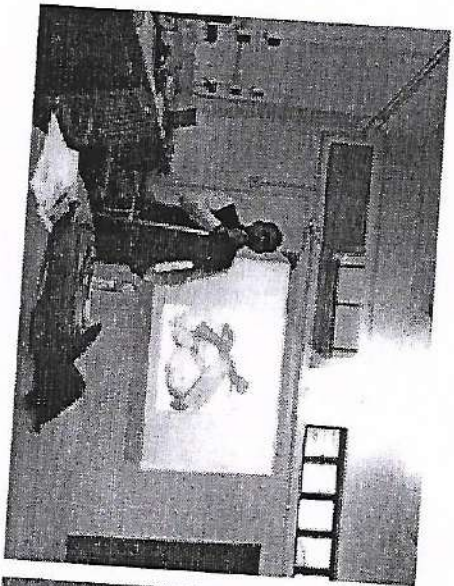

Measures taken for improving academic performance of these students

- (i) Remedial/Extra classes are conducted with appropriate focus on the subject/topic codes in which the students are found to be slow learners
- (ii) Individual academic counseling is done by concerned subject teacher.
- (iii) Student helpdesk.
- (iv) Students study groups are formed for peer-to-peer learning.
- (v) Personal counseling is done through mentoring (Teacher guardian) scheme which takes care of the students mentors maintain the entire academic record of the student which is also conveyed to the parents time to time by the teacher guardian. Slow Learner

Every student have different learning attitude and habit. Teaching learning and teaching methodology has to be adapted such that the teacher does not lose the attention of the slow learners and turn off the advanced learners.

Special programs for advance and slow learners .
If the performance score of the student is below 55% .In internal assessment then the student is considered as slow learner.Faculty members continuously take care and mentor the performance of slow learner .

For encouraging and motivating slow learner special attention is paid to them and a special systematic procedure as shown in flow chart .
